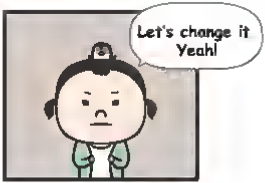
Hurriedly

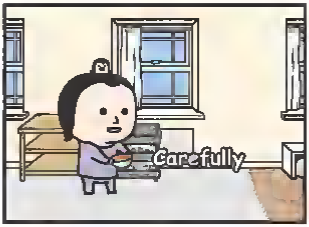
Changing a personality trait is not easy.



But personality traits can be changed slowly if you try hard.

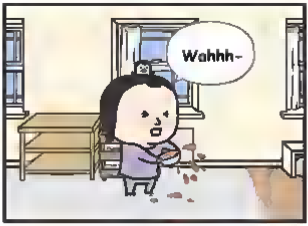
One that I've changed is...

Act is a panic when something is wrong → Not acting in a panic when something is wrong.



Carefully

Wow



When I make a mistake,
if I rush, I make even more mistakes.

I didn't like that I looked even more silly when I acted in a panic

So since then, if I'm in a panic, ...

... I try to calm down first and then try to solve the situation.
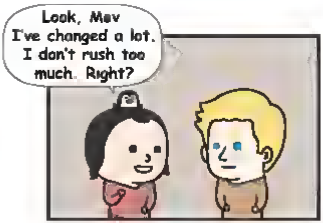
This has become a kind of habit.



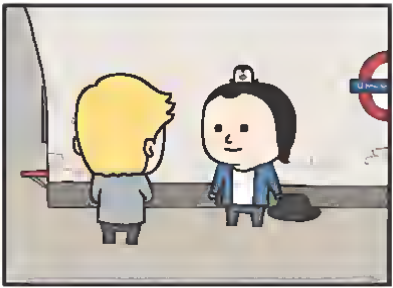
Then one day,
Mev reminded me about London.

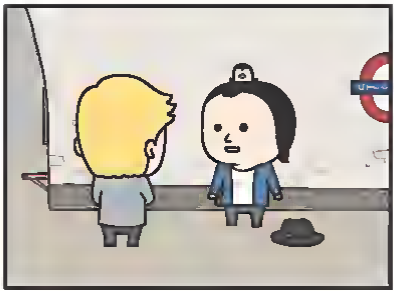
It was when we went to London
to see Carl and Mel.

When we were underground
to catch the tube, a draft came by.

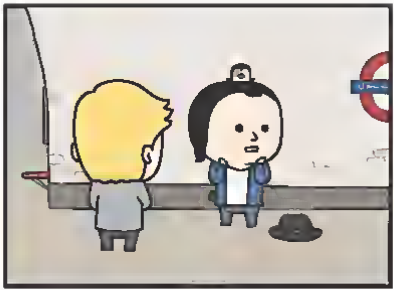
My hat fell on the floor.

You didn't pick up
you hat but....

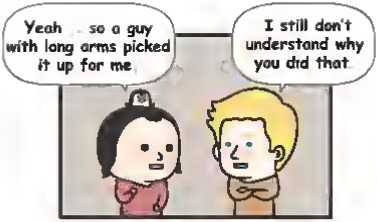




If you held it with your foot it would have been fine.
but you just stood still instead.



It blew away and landed on the track!



Sometimes,
a mended personality is worse.
